Liquor Control Commission Underage Compliance Report

SPRINGFIELD – Three establishments were cited for selling alcohol to minors in Kane County, specifically in Elgin. The Illinois Liquor Control Commission (ILCC) conducted underage compliance checks on August 21, 2014.

In conjunction with the Elgin Police Department, the ILCC conducted 12 compliance checks in these counties. Nine of the licensees complied with Illinois liquor laws and refused to serve underage customers. The following establishments were cited for selling liquor to ILCC underage participants:

- 7-Eleven, 957 W. Summit St., Elgin
- Otter Creek & Wine, 250 S. Randall Rd., Elgin
- The Pride of Elgin, 1700 N. State St., Elgin

This report is a result of ongoing undercover and cooperative law enforcement operations conducted by Illinois Liquor Control Commission (ILCC) agents, local law enforcement officials and volunteers from high schools and colleges. The teams randomly visit liquor stores, restaurants and bars in communities around the state to check for ongoing compliance with state laws mandating that no liquor is sold to minors under the age of 21. ILCC agents also work with local and state law enforcement agents to focus on communities with a high incidence of underage liquor sales.

For information about hearings regarding checks, please visit: the Illinois Liquor Control Commission's website. The next scheduled ILCC hearing is Wednesday, September 17, 2014, in Rockford.
