

General Information

What is new?

For tax years ending on or after December 31, 2007, the Form IL-1041, Fiduciary Income and Replacement Tax Return, has been redesigned. Illinois Schedule NR, Nonresident Computation of Fiduciary Income, with revision date 12/07, reflects the changes made to the 2007 Form IL-1041. Use this version of Illinois 2007 Schedule NR (Form IL-1041) for tax years ending on or after December 31, 2007.

Note → Do not use this schedule if you are filing Form IL-1040, Individual Income Tax Return.

What is the purpose of Schedule NR?

Schedule NR allows a trust or estate that is a nonresident of Illinois to determine the income that is taxed by Illinois during the tax year. Resident trusts and estates are not permitted to allocate their fiduciary base income.

Note → Attach Illinois 2007 Schedule NR to your Form IL-1041.

What is a nonresident trust or estate?

A nonresident trust or estate is defined as

- the estate of a decedent who at his or her death was not domiciled in Illinois;
- a trust created by a will of a decedent who at his or her death was not domiciled in Illinois; or
- an irrevocable trust, whose grantor was not domiciled in Illinois at the time the trust became irrevocable. For purposes of this definition, a trust is irrevocable to the extent that the grantor is not treated as the owner of the trust under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Sections 671 through 678.

Note → Your domicile is the place where you reside and the place where you intend to return after temporary absences.

What is business income?

Business income means all income, other than employee compensation, that may be apportioned among the states in which you are doing business without violating the Constitution of the United States. All income of a trust or estate is business income unless it is clearly attributable to only one state and is earned or received through activities totally unrelated to any business you are conducting in more than one state. Business income is net of all deductions attributable to that income.

When is business income allocable to Illinois?

For a nonresident of Illinois whose business income is derived

- wholly inside Illinois, the entire amount of business income is allocable to Illinois.
- wholly outside Illinois, none of the business income is allocable to Illinois.
- inside and outside Illinois, you must complete Illinois Schedule NR, Step 6, Figure your business income apportionment factor. You will use this factor to figure the Illinois portion of each item of your business income.

- from subchapter S corporations, partnerships, and other fiduciaries, the business income may be allocable to Illinois. See the Illinois Schedule K-1-P, Partner's or Shareholder's Share of Income, Deductions, Credits, and Recapture, furnished by the subchapter S corporation or partnership or the Illinois Schedule K-1-T, Beneficiary's Share of Income and Deductions, furnished by the trust or estate to determine what income is allocable to Illinois.

What is nonbusiness income?

Nonbusiness income is all income other than business income or compensation. It is income you can clearly classify as having no connection to your business.

When is nonbusiness income allocable to Illinois?

For a nonresident of Illinois, items of income and deduction that constitute nonbusiness income are allocable to Illinois according to the following rules:

- Interest and dividend income received by a nonresident trust or estate is not allocable to Illinois.

- Net rents and royalties:

Real property - Rents and royalties from real property are allocable to Illinois if the property is located in Illinois.

Tangible personal property - Rents and royalties from tangible personal property are allocable to Illinois by multiplying the rents and royalties derived from the property by a fraction, in which the numerator is the number of days of physical location of the property in Illinois during the rental and royalty period in the tax year, and the denominator is the number of days of physical location of the property everywhere during all rental or royalty periods in the tax year.

- Patent and copyright royalties are allocable to Illinois to the extent that the patent or copyright is used in Illinois.

A patent is used in Illinois to the extent that it is employed in production, fabrication, manufacturing, or other processing in Illinois or to the extent that a patented product is produced in Illinois.

A copyright is used in Illinois to the extent that printing or other publication originates in Illinois.

- Gains and losses from sales or exchanges of real or tangible personal property are in Illinois if the property is located in Illinois at the time of the sale or exchange. Gains or losses from the sale or exchange of intangible personal property are not allocable to Illinois.
- Illinois State Lottery winnings are allocable to Illinois.
- Other unspecified items of income or deduction of a nonresident trust or estate are not allocable to Illinois.
- Nonbusiness income from subchapter S corporations, partnerships and other fiduciaries is allocated to Illinois as if the trust or estate received it directly. See the Illinois Schedule K-1-P furnished by the subchapter S corporation or partnership or the Illinois Schedule K-1-T furnished by the fiduciary to determine what income is allocable to Illinois.

Lines 52 and 53 — Follow the instructions on Illinois Schedule NR.

Line 54 — You are entitled to deduct a standard exemption in computing net income. The amount of the standard exemption is $1,000, multiplied by a fraction, the numerator is your base income allocable to Illinois for the tax year and the denominator is total base income for the tax year.

Step 6 — Figure your business income apportionment factor

Who must complete Step 6?

You must complete Step 6 if the trust or estate derived business income or loss from both inside and outside of Illinois. The apportionment factor is applied to items of business income or loss in Steps 3 and 4 to determine the amount of business income or loss apportionable to Illinois. The apportionment factor is also used to apportion business income or loss on Illinois Schedule K-1-T for each beneficiary.

Note → If you are a partner engaged in unitary business with your partnership, you must include your distributive share of the “everywhere” and “Illinois” sales factors from the partnership in your “everywhere” and “Illinois” sales factors. For more information, see the Illinois Income Tax Regulations, Section 100.3380(d).

Line 1 — Write your total sales everywhere.

Line 2 — Write your total sales inside Illinois.

In general, “sales” means all gross receipts included in business income.

Include gross receipts from the license, sale or other disposition of patents, copyrights, trademarks, and similar items of intangible personal property in the numerator and denominator of your sales factor only if these gross receipts are more than 50 percent of the total gross receipts included in gross income for this tax year and each of the two immediately preceding tax years.

Do not include the following items of income in the numerator or denominator of your sales factor:

- dividends;
- amounts included under IRC Section 78;
- subpart F income as defined in IRC Section 952; and
- any item of income excluded or deducted from base income.

For more information on what should be included in the numerator and denominator of your sales factor, see Illinois Income Tax Regulations 100.3370 and 100.3380.

Sales of tangible personal property are inside Illinois if

- the property is delivered or shipped from anywhere to a purchaser in Illinois, other than the United States government, regardless of the f.o.b. point or other conditions of the sale;
- the property is shipped from Illinois to any place and the purchaser is the United States government;
- the property is shipped from Illinois to another state and you are not taxable in the state of the purchaser or you did not file a tax return in the state of the purchaser; or
- your salesperson operates out of an office in Illinois, and the property sold by the salesperson is shipped from a state in which you are not taxable, to a state in which you are not taxable.

If the “sales everywhere” amount includes gross receipts from the licensing, sale, or other disposition of patents, copyrights, trademarks, and other similar items of intangible personal property, these sales are in Illinois to the extent the item is used in Illinois during the year the gross receipts are included in gross income. An item is used in Illinois if

- a patent is employed in production, fabrication, manufacturing, or other processing in Illinois or if the patented product is produced in Illinois.
- copyrighted material is printed or other publications originated in Illinois.
- the commercial domicile of the licensee or purchaser of a trademark or other item of intangible personal property is in Illinois.

Note → If you cannot determine from your books and records (or the books and records of a related person) in which state an item is used, do not include the gross receipts from that item in the numerator or the denominator of the sales factor.

Sales, other than sales of tangible personal property, or gross receipts from the licensing, sale, or other disposition of patents, copyrights, trademarks and similar items of intangible personal property, are in Illinois if

- the income-producing activity is performed in Illinois; or
- the income-producing activity is performed both inside and outside Illinois, and a greater proportion of the income-producing activity is performed inside Illinois rather than outside Illinois, based on performance costs.

Line 3 — Divide Line 2 by Line 1 and write the result, carried to six decimal places. This is your apportionment factor.
