This letter discusses the rules regarding nexus and the taxability of food. See Quill Corp. v. North Dakota, 112 S. Ct. 1904 (1992). See 86 Ill. Adm. Code 130.310. (This is a GIL.)

June 23, 2017

Dear Xxxxx:

This letter is in response to your letter dated April 12, 2017, in which you requested information. The Department issues two types of letter rulings. Private Letter Rulings (“PLRs”) are issued by the Department in response to specific taxpayer inquiries concerning the application of a tax statute or rule to a particular fact situation. A PLR is binding on the Department, but only as to the taxpayer who is the subject of the request for ruling and only to the extent the facts recited in the PLR are correct and complete. Persons seeking PLRs must comply with the procedures for PLRs found in the Department’s regulations at 2 Ill. Adm. Code 1200.110. The purpose of a General Information Letter (“GIL”) is to direct taxpayers to Department regulations or other sources of information regarding the topic about which they have inquired. A GIL is not a statement of Department policy and is not binding on the Department. See 2 Ill. Adm. Code 1200.120. You may access our website at www.tax.illinois.gov to review regulations, letter rulings and other types of information relevant to your inquiry.

The nature of your inquiry and the information you have provided require that we respond with a GIL. In your letter you have stated and made inquiry as follows:

My name is NAME, and I am writing on behalf of PERSON, the manager-member of ABC d/b/a DEF, headquartered in CITY, STATE.

DEF sells energy snack bars online via COMPANY, and some inventory may be stocked at their warehouse in your state. Per research, our products are taxed at a reduced rate of 1% in your State due to its classification as a food item. Could you please provide a legal binding/ruling of our liability of collecting and remitting reduced sales tax in your State?

DEF is a pre-packaged non-perishable energy snack bar (food product). Following is a link to our website’s product page where nutritional value and product ingredients are listed: <http://www.WEBSITE>

DEPARTMENT'S RESPONSE:

The Illinois Retailers' Occupation Tax Act imposes a tax upon persons engaged in this State in the business of selling tangible personal property to purchasers for use or consumption. See 86 Ill. Adm. Code 130.101. In Illinois, Use Tax is imposed on the privilege of using, in this State, any kind of tangible personal property that is purchased anywhere at retail from a retailer. See 86 Ill. Adm. Code 150.101. These taxes comprise what is commonly known as "sales" tax in Illinois. If the purchases occur in Illinois, the purchasers must pay the Use Tax to the retailer at the time of purchase. The retailers are then allowed to reduce the amount of Use Tax they must remit by the amount of Retailers' Occupation Tax liability which they are required to and do pay to the Department with respect to the same sales. See 86 Ill. Adm. Code 150.130.

In the case of food that is sold for human consumption that is to be consumed off the premises where it is sold (other than alcoholic beverages, soft drinks, candy and food that has been prepared for immediate consumption), the tax is imposed at the low State rate of 1%, plus any applicable local taxes. Food that is prepared for immediate consumption, as well as candy, alcoholic beverages and soft drinks, is taxed at the general State rate of 6.25%, plus any applicable local taxes. For further information on the taxability of food, please see 86 Ill. Adm. Code 130.310. Food that is to be consumed off the premises where it is sold includes food sold from a vending machine, except soft drinks, candy, and food products that are dispensed hot from a vending machine.

As pointed out above, candy is taxable at the 6.25% general merchandise rate. Candy is defined as a preparation of sugar, honey, or other natural or artificial sweeteners in combination with chocolate, fruits, nuts or other ingredients or flavorings in the form of bars, drops, or pieces. Candy does not include any preparation that contains flour or requires refrigeration. Thus, if a product contains flour or requires refrigeration, it would not be considered "candy" even if it meets all the other elements of the definition. The snack bars that you have inquired about appear to contain flour. Therefore, they are not considered candy, and would qualify for the 1% rate which applies to grocery food.

An "Illinois Retailer" is one who makes sales of tangible personal property in Illinois. The Illinois Retailer is then liable for Retailers' Occupation Tax on gross receipts from sales and must collect the corresponding Use Tax incurred by the purchasers. Our regulations were amended in response to the Illinois Supreme Court's decision in Hartney Fuel Oil Co. v. Hamer, 2013 IL 115130. The regulations specify the selling activities that trigger Retailers' Occupation Tax liability in Illinois.

Another type of retailer is the retailer maintaining a place of business in Illinois. The definition of a "retailer maintaining a place of business in Illinois" is described in 86 Ill. Adm. Code 150.201(i). This type of retailer is required to register with the State as an Illinois Use Tax collector. See 86 Ill. Adm. Code 150.801. The retailer must collect and remit Use Tax to the State on behalf of the retailer's Illinois customers even though the retailer does not incur any Retailers' Occupation Tax liability.

The United States Supreme Court in Quill Corp. v. North Dakota, 112 S.Ct. 1904 (1992), set forth the current guidelines for determining what nexus requirements must be met before a person is properly subject to a state's tax laws. The Supreme Court has set out a 2-prong test for nexus. The first prong is whether the Due Process Clause is satisfied. Due process will be satisfied if the person or entity purposely avails itself or himself of the benefits of an economic market in a forum state. Quill at 1910. The second prong of the Supreme Court's nexus test requires that, if due process requirements have been satisfied, the person or entity must have physical presence in the forum state to satisfy the Commerce Clause. A physical presence is not limited to an office or other physical building. Under Illinois law, it also includes the presence of any agent or representative of the seller. The representative need not be a sales representative. Any type of physical presence in the State of Illinois, including the vendor's delivery and installation of his product on a repetitive basis, will trigger Use Tax collection responsibilities. Please refer to Brown's Furniture, Inc. v. Zehnder, 171 Ill.2d 410 (1996).

The final type of retailer is the out-of-State retailer that does not have sufficient nexus with Illinois to be required to submit to Illinois tax laws. A retailer in this situation does not incur Retailers' Occupation Tax on sales into Illinois and is not required to collect Use Tax on behalf of its Illinois customers. However, the retailer's Illinois customers will still incur Use Tax liability on the purchase of the goods and have a duty to self-assess and remit their Use Tax liability directly to the State.

Beginning July 1, 2011, the definition of a "retailer maintaining a place of business" was amended to include additional types of retailers. A retailer maintaining a place of business also includes a retailer having a contract with a person located in this State under which:

- A. The retailer sells the same or substantially similar line of products as the person located in this State and does so using an identical or substantially similar name, trade name, or trademark as the person located in this State; and
- B. The retailer provides a commission or other consideration to the person located in this State based upon the sale of tangible personal property by the retailer. See 35 ILCS 105/2(1.2).

These provisions only apply if the cumulative gross receipts from sales of tangible personal property by the retailer to customers in this State under all such contracts exceed $10,000 during the preceding 4 quarterly periods. Please note that in Performance Mktg. Ass'n, Inc. v. Hamer, 998 N.E.2d 54 (2013) the Illinois Supreme Court struck down 35 ILCS 105/2(1.1) and 35 ILCS 110/2(1.1), a "click-thru nexus provision" enacted in 2011. However, new provisions became effective January 1, 2015. The following provisions address the court's concerns in Performance Mktg. Ass'n, Inc. v. Hamer, 998 N.E. 2d 54 (2013).

Beginning January 1, 2015, a retailer maintaining a place of business also includes a retailer having a contract with a person located in this State under which the person, for a commission or other consideration based upon the sale of tangible personal property by the retailer, directly or indirectly refers potential customers to the retailer by providing to the potential customers a promotional code or other mechanism that allows the retailer to track purchases referred by such persons.

Examples of mechanisms that allow the retailer to track purchases referred by such persons include but are not limited to the use of a link on the person's Internet website, promotional codes distributed through the person's hand-delivered or mailed material, and promotional codes distributed by the person through radio or other broadcast media. These provisions apply only if the cumulative gross receipts from sales of tangible personal property by the retailer to customers who are referred to the retailer by all persons in Illinois under such contracts exceed $10,000 during the preceding 4 quarterly periods ending on the last day of March, June, September, and December. A retailer meeting these requirements shall be presumed to be maintaining a place of business in Illinois but may rebut this presumption by submitting proof that the referrals or other activities pursued within this State by such persons were not sufficient to meet the nexus standards of the United States Constitution during the preceding 4 quarterly periods. See 35 ILCS 105/2(1.1).

Your letter mentions that DEF sells its products via the COMPANY platform. In this case, DEF may not have a collection obligation in Illinois if it does not meet any of the nexus requirements outlined above. However, please be advised that a special rule exists for companies selling outside of Illinois who have inventory located in Illinois at the time of sale. Please see 86 Ill. Adm. Code 270.115. If DEF is renting inventory space from another company in a warehouse located in Illinois, this could create nexus, and thus require DEF to collect and remit tax.

I hope this information is helpful. If you require additional information, please visit our website at www.tax.illinois.gov or contact the Department's Taxpayer Information Division at (217) 782-3336.

Very truly yours,

Cara Bishop
